

IRC 25 Years: Embracing the Future

. | Sept. 27, 2018

The world's largest executive search alliance, IRC Global Executive Search Partners will be celebrating its 25 year anniversary at its Global Conference in Lima, Peru on October 3-5, 2018. This year's theme for the event will be "Embracing the Future".

IRC partners from over 40 countries will gather in Lima to explore the impacts of digital transformation and the implications of technological advances such as AI and big data on the search for the leaders of tomorrow. This year, IRC's global alliance of executive search firms is also celebrating its 25 year anniversary, a significant occasion to reflect on the sustained growth of the organization and discuss strategies for the years ahead.

"This year we will be celebrating both the past and looking forward to the future. We will have the opportunity to hear from some outstanding speakers and learn more about the exciting South American region," says Rohan Carr, President of the IRC Executive Board.

IRC partners participating at the Global Conference will use the opportunity of this face to face meeting to deepen relationships and share best practices as the alliance strives to provide exceptional service across the globe.

They will also engage with several external keynote speakers joining the conference, namely John Price, Managing Director Americas Market Intelligence and expert on Latin America's, Liz Bacelar, Founder of TheCurrent and a prolific speaker at the forefront of fashion, retail & technology, and Bill Boorman, social media & technology expert.
